"It all starts at the top."

That's a common phrase when talking about the success of any professional operation, and it particularly holds true with the steps taken to bring about the resurgence of the New York Jets.

Directors Leon Hess and Mrs. Helen Dillon showed their desire to return the club to the forefront of the National Football League in 1977 when they selected Walt Michaels to be their leader on the field and Jim Kensil to assume the full responsibility of administering the overall operation of the club.

In between naming Michaels and Kensil, the directors fought long and hard to secure early home dates. For over a decade, the Jets had been "orphans" of the NFL, never being allowed to play preseason or regular season games before their fans during the baseball season.

That all changed in 1978 when the Jets opened the season at home for the first time since 1964 and played five games at Shea in September and October. For the remaining four years of their lease with the City at Shea, the Jets have been guaranteed at least four early season home games.

Hess has been totally involved in the development of the club since acquiring part of the franchise in 1963. This past offseason, Hess purchased Townsend Martin's twenty-five percent interest in the club and now assumes seventy-five percent ownership, while Mrs. Dillon retains twenty-five percent. Mrs. Dillon, daughter of former club president Donald C. Lillis, assumed the post of vice president and secretary in 1968 upon the death of her father and has been an active member ever since.

LEON HESS, chairman of the board and chief executive officer for corporate affairs, is chairman and chief executive officer of the Amerada Hess Corporation. He is a respected member of the board of directors of the Monmouth Park Jockey Club, the American Broadcasting Corporation and the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company.

MRS. HELEN DILLON, vice president, is a vivacious and enthusiastic fan who is in regular attendance at every Jets' game and function. She has become one of the most respected and knowledgeable woman executives in sports and is the first woman on the board of directors of the Pop Warner Football Association. Mrs. Dillon was honored in 1977 by that organization for her contributions to football. She resides in Cos Cob, Conn., with her husband, Dr. Thomas F. Dillon.

JIM KENSIL, President

Progress in pro football depends greatly on stability and direction. The Jets believe that in Jim Kensil they have the man at the top to provide these essential elements for success.

In his first four seasons with the Jets, Kensil has stressed communication within the organization and has outlined everyone's responsibilities.

"What we've tried to do is make sure everybody knows his specific job and understands it," said Kensil, who is a member of the executive committee of the NFL Management Council.

Kensil had quite a few responsibilities as an administrator in the National Football League for 16 years. He had to move only several blocks from Park to Madison Avenue when he was named the Jets' president and chief operating officer on June 6, 1977.

For nine years prior to joining the Jets, Kensil had been executive director of the NFL, the man Pete Rozelle called "my offensive and defensive coordinator." For seven years before that, he was the NFL's public relations director.

Kensil succeeded Leon Hess, who had served as acting president of the Jets following the death of Phil Iselin in December, 1976. Hess now has the responsibilities of chairman of the board and chief executive officer for corporate matters. Kensil also serves as a member of the board of directors.

While in the NFL office, Kensil made many innovative contributions to pro football. He was one of the chief architects of the new NFL scheduling format that was introduced in 1978.

Kensil began his sportswriting career as a student stringer at the University of Pennsylvania. After graduating in 1952, he went to work for the Associated Press in New York City on the sports and news desk before being drafted. He served in Germany and edited the Seventh Army newspaper.

He returned to the AP in 1954 and worked nearly two years in Columbus, Ohio, before coming back to the New York bureau where he covered general sports assignments, edited the teletypesetter Sports Wire and wrote a weekly column about sports on radio and television called "The Sports Dial." He left the AP in 1961 to join the NFL as public relations director.

Kensil was born Aug. 19, 1930, in Philadelphia, Pa. He and his wife, Catherine, have four children and reside in Massapequa, Long Island. Their oldest son, Mike 25, is traveling secretary for the Jets. They also have two other sons, Joe 23 and Danny 19, and a daughter, Mary Jo 21.

WALT MICHAELS, Head Coach

The New York Jets' blueprint for building a contender suffered a setback last year, but head coach Walt Michaels, one of the architects and laborers, is mapping plans to put the Jets on the right path again.

Injuries and an inability to overcome youthful mistakes last year slowed the Jets' building plan, a plan that has seen the Jets add 27 players (17 of them starters) to the squad through the last five drafts.

In 1980, and for the last three years, the Jets had the least experienced team in the NFL. That inexperience bred inconsistency and led to a 4-12 record, which fell on the heels of consecutive 8-8 records that had Michaels' club on the upswing.

"The biggest factors in our plan to upgrade our team are to stay healthy and to gain playing experience", said Michaels. "The toughest thing in winning, is winning the first time. When the public says you are good and puts pressure on you to win, the opposition doesn't roll over dead. You have to learn that and go out and work harder. That comes with maturity. We are reaching that level now."

Marvin Powell, the Jets' all-pro tackle and the man who took over as offensive captain late in the season says of Michaels, "Walt respects you if you do the job," Powell said. "He doesn't bother you that much. He gives you a certain amount of leeway and treats you like a man. We're not pampered. He tells you what is wrong; he's honest."

The 51-year-old former Cleveland Brown great also has been praised by the opposition. In 1978 when the Jets swept both games from Miami for the first time since 1969, Bob Griese said, "I don't know Walt Michaels personally, but I have much respect for him. He's put things together in New York. From what I could gather about Michaels as a player, he had much character and hustle, and believe me, he's transmitted it to that Jets' team."

In 1977, Michaels' first year as head coach, the Jets did not improve their 3-11 record from the year before, but they regained respect throughout the league with their aggressive, hard-hitting style of play, particularly against some of the toughest teams in the NFL.

Michaels was rewarded with an extension of his contract before the 1978 season. "It's a simple matter of Walt doing the job," said club president Jim Kensil. "He has leadership quality. He's a hard worker. He's organized. And people believe in him. It's not just the players, it's the ownership."

In Michaels' second season at the helm, the Jets stayed in play-off contention until the 15th game of the season before losing in overtime at Cleveland. The Jets finished 8-8, their best record since 1974 and their most wins since 1969. They made the biggest improvement in the won-lost record of any team in the NFL, picking up five victories from 1977.

For the Jets' accomplishment, Michaels was named AFC coach of the year by the Pro Football Writers Association and UPI. He was selected NFL coach of the year by Pro Football Weekly and several other publications.

The son of Polish immigrants, Michaels' football philosophy was molded in the Pennsylvania coal mine country. "My father died when he was 54 and he understood two things about football," Michaels said. "If you hit, you win. And if you won, you were successful."

Michaels did a lot of hitting and winning as a linebacker for the Cleveland Browns from 1952-61. He played on two NFL championship teams, five divisional winners and made the Pro Bowl four straight years from 1957-60.

He was drafted in the seventh round by Cleveland in 1951 out of Washington & Lee, where he played fullback, guard and linebacker while earning a B.A. in psychology and education. The Browns traded Michaels that same year to Green Bay for Dan Orlich and then reacquired him in 1952 for Richard Logan, Elmer Costa and Forrest Gregg. Michaels became a starting linebacker and missed only two games in his 10-year career with Cleveland.

Michaels' toughness was transplanted into the defenses he coached in the pro ranks. He began as defensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders in 1962 and joined the Jets the following year in a similar position under Weeb Ewbank.

For 10 years Michaels masterminded the growth of the Jets' defense, which became one of the most respected in the AFL and then AFC. Under his tutelage, such players as Gerry Philbin, John Elliott, Verlon Biggs, Al Atkinson, Larry Grantham and Ralph Baker were developed.

When Michaels first joined the Jets' staff, he came out of retirement for the 1963 opener at Boston when the Jets' linebacking corps was decimated by injuries. He played the entire game after not having practiced for two years.

Michaels devoted all his energy to coaching after his one-game "comeback." In 1967 he took over the secondary and linebackers and helped mold the Jets' 1968 defense into the number-one unit in the AFL against the rush and in total defense. In 1970, the unit again ranked on top in total defense as well as first against the rush in the AFC.

Michaels' finest hour came in Super Bowl III. Although the Jets' defense received little of the glamour in the stunning 16-7 upset victory, Michaels' men played a significant role by holding Baltimore scoreless until less than four minutes remained. The often maligned secondary of four free agents intercepted four Colt passes.

The game created an unusual situation for Walt's mother, Mary, who was chosen NFL mother of the year in 1966. On the Baltimore side was Walt's brother, Lou, a standout placekicker who played in the NFL from 1958-69 after earning All-America honors as a tackle at Kentucky.

Michaels remained with the Jets until 1973 when, with Charley Winner designated as the next head coach, he left to join the Eagles.

Michaels was defensive coordinator at Philadelphia for three seasons before returning to the Jets in 1976 to oversee the defense under Lou Holtz. He transformed the Jets' linebacking from the weakest spot on the squad to the strongest unit despite the fact that three of the starters were rookies, and only one, Greg Buttle, was a high draft choice.

Holtz resigned after the 13th game that season, and Michaels became the eighth head coach in Jets' history in January, 1977.

Michaels is another in the line of Paul Brown products to become head coach in the pros. Presently there are five others: Forrest Gregg, Mike McCormack, Chuck Noll, Don Shula and Bill Walsh.

Although football dominates most of Michaels' life, he enjoys spending time on his farm in Swoyersville, Pa., where he relaxes by chopping wood, gardening and hunting.

In 1977 Michaels was named to the Commonwealth of Virginia and Long Island (N.Y.) sports halls of fame. In 1978 he was inducted into the ODK honorary fraternity at Washington & Lee for outstanding achievement and also was honored by the New York Press Photographers Association for his cooperation.

Michaels was born Oct. 16, 1929, in Swoyersville. He and his wife, Betty, have four children: Mary Ann 24; Walter, Jr., 22, a former all-East linebacker at Kutztown (Pa.) State; Mark 17 and Paul 13. They make their home in West Islip, N.Y.

Lookout on L.I....opened his own restaurant in East Meadow called "Buttle's Ground Floor Cafe"...is the alternate player representative...has done work for the Dr. I Fund which donates funds towards cancer research...did promotion for ASPCA in 1979 (has a black Labrador named Backer)...represented Jets in public service TV spot for United Way in 1977...enjoys paddleball, fishing, scuba diving and rowing...sang in a barbershop quartet at Penn State and still occasionally sings...father Thomas was FBI agent...brother Toby played football at Navy...was named best athlete in South Jersey at Mainland Regional High where he was all-state in football, all-county in basketball and a track standout...also acted in school plays... birthplace: Atlantic City, N.J....hometown: Linwood, N.J.

The great plays are the ones you shouldn't make, aren't expected to make. Like hitting someone really hard and separating them from the ball. Stopping a drive at the last minute. A saving tackle. To me, the area from the 2-yard line in is the most exciting place for a defensive player.

SCOTT Dierking 25

RB 5-10 215 5/24/55

Purdue

Draft 4, 1977

5th Season

PRONOUNCED: DIR-king.

PRO: "Scott was our leading rusher last season and we are expecting him to continue contributing," Michaels said. "He is a steady and dependable performer. Scott worked hard to improve his blocking and it showed."...led the team in rushing yardage in 1980 with 567...had finished second on the squad in rushing the three previous seasons...played in all 16 games but strained calf suffered against Miami limited him to only one play at New England...played with a severe rib injury for several games...fumbled just three times in 156 carries...set a career high with six rushing TDs...had the most receptions in a game during his career with six catches against Seattle and Cleveland...named Pentax Jets' player of the week for effort vs. Seattle when his six catches netted 60 yards, while also rushing for 65 yards...had 75 yards rushing in Jets' win at Miami...also had two TD runs which equalled a career high...started off slow in 1980 after suffering an ankle chip fracture during preseason...ranks sixth in Jets' career rushing with 2,330 yards...has been a starter since midway through his rookie season when he was switched from fullback to halfback...enjoyed his finest season in 1979 when Jets led NFL in rushing for first time ever...had 767 yards and combined with Clark Gaines for more yards on the ground (1,672) than any pair of running backs in Jet history...rushed for a career high 107 yards vs. Pittsburgh, the best effort by a Jet in 1977...was not a good blocker as a rookie but worked on it during off season and became a bruising hitter...has missed only one game in four years (at Miami in 1978 with sprained ankle)...a powerful runner with a low center of gravity...keeps his feet peddling for extra yardage...build and style of running similar to those of former Jet Mike Adamle, who was Dierking's idol at Northwestern while he was in high school.

COLLEGE: Second leading career rusher at Purdue behind Otis Armstrong...gained 2,863 yards, including 1,000 as a senior...only runner besides Armstrong to lead Boilermakers in rushing three straight years...chosen second team All-America by AP and Football News...first team All-Big Ten, team MVP and co-captain as a senior...led Purdue to upset of No. 1 ranked Michigan with 162 yards rushing...played in East-West Game, Hula and Japan bowls.

DONALD Dykes

CB 5-11 188 8/24/55
Southeastern Louisiana
Draft 3, 1979 3rd Season

PRO: "Donald improved as the season progressed," Michaels said. "He should benefit from the year of experience."...took over as the starting RCB after Johnny Lynn was injured on the first day of training camp...started all 16 games...had 38 solo tackles and 30 assists...finished the season strong with five interceptions in the last nine games...first NFL interception came in Monday night game against Miami...also picked-off passes against New England, Los Angeles, Cleveland and at Miami...his interception in the end zone at Miami with time running out preserved the Jets' victory...was second on the club to Bobby Jackson in passes defended with 12...named to Pro Football Weekly's most improved squad...one of the fastest players on the Jets...runs the 40 in 4.4 seconds...played in all 16 games as a rookie and started first two after beating out veteran Ed Taylor...was replaced by Lynn during second game...spent rest of year as a special teamer and extra back in passing situations...blocked two punts, including one that was recovered in end zone for TD...also had a blocked PAT and field goal...was fourth defensive back chosen in the 1979 draft.

COLLEGE: A four-year letterman in both football and track at Southeastern Louisiana...had a track scholarship and was walk-on in football...blocked 12 kicks and picked off six interceptions in his career...four-time track All-America...set school and Louisiana record with leap of 26-2½ in long jump, which was the 17th best in the world in 1977...was NAIA indoor long jump champion as a freshman and NCAA Division II outdoor titleholder as a sophomore...also excelled in triple jump (best of 53-3).

PERSONAL: Wife Gwenn...majored in criminal justice...studied at Southeastern Louisiana during offseason...organized charity basketball game in his hometown with the proceeds going to the United Way...also worked part-time as a car salesman...football and track standout at Hammond High in his hometown of Hammond, La...birthplace: Independence, La.

PRO CAREER STATS: Interceptions: 5 in 1980, 1 yard, 0.2 avg., 1 LG, 0 TD. Games played/started: 1979 (16/2), 1980 (16/16).

JOE Fields

C 6-2 253 11/14/53

Widener

Draft 14, 1975

7th Season

PRO: "Joe was the unfortunate victim of injuries last season," Michaels said. "He should be back at full-tilt this season and we are expecting him to resume his role as the leader in the center of our offensive line." ...was another Jet bitten by the injury bug last season...sprained knee forced him to miss three games, while finger and wrist woes prevented him from making the long snap...had only missed one game in his previous five years with the Jets...graded out high among the offensive linemen once again...was not called for any penalties in 1980 in 816 plays...Stan Waldemore was the only other Jet lineman that wasn't penalized...named as the Pentax Jet player of the week for his performance at Baltimore...was chosen as the Jet representative for the NFL Man of the Year in 1980...called "the most underrated player on the team" by offensive line coach Bob Fry. "Joe's not the biggest center around, but he has good quickness and strength. He's extra smart on making line calls."...started 15 games in 1979 when Jets led NFL in rushing for first time ever...has one of the fastest and most accurate snaps in the league (between .7 and .8 seconds to the punter)...classic example of determined player who has made himself good...was given little chance of making the team as a 14th round pick out of tiny Widener, particularly when he showed up at rookie camp with baby fat...spent countless hours lifting weights and practicing snaps to his wife and father...remains one of the most dedicated weightlifters on the team.

COLLEGE: Never missed a play at Widener (Chester, Pa.) despite contused shoulder and sprained ankle as a senior...all-conference in 1974...called blocking assignments for offensive line...played with Billy "White Shoes" Johnson...gained 25 pounds between his junior and senior years because he wanted to be pro center...originally enrolled at Rutgers-Camden, which didn't have a football team, but was persuaded to transfer by Widener coach Bill Manlove.

PERSONAL: Wife Kay...has degree in accounting...spent offseason working out with weights...was involved in training program with Chemical Bank on L.I....bought a home in Woodbury Heights, N.J....very active in public service activities...voted by fans as Jets' NFL Man of the Year for his play on the field and charity work...served as emcee at the Christmas party sponsored by No Greater Love and Eastern Paralyzed Veterans Association for children stricken with leukemia...helped with the Jets' annual Christmas party for children at Nassau County Medical Center...served as L.I. co-chairman for the March of Dimes' Walk-a-Thon...has done volunteer work with several community hospitals and blood centers...also participated in No Greater Love's "Fire Safety for the Handicapped" program...has made appearances for the Boy Scouts' membership enrollment drives...birthplace: Woodbury, N.J....hometown: Deptford, N.J.

PRO CAREER STATS: Jet fumbles recovered: 2 (1 in 1977, 1 in 1980). Opp. fumbles recovered: 1 in 1975. Games played/started: 1975 (14/0), 1976 (14/10), 1977 (14/14), 1978 (16/16), 1979 (15/15) 1980 (13/13).

The last time Joe Fields recalls being stopped for his autograph — "Never."

"Offensive lineman would be perfect for American Express commercials."

— Joe Fields

DERRICK Gaffney

81

WR 6-1 182 5/24/55
Florida
Draft 8a, 1978 4th Season

PRO: "Derrick is one of our more sure-handed receivers," Michaels said. "He is a disciplined receiver who runs precise routes. You can count on Derrick to catch the ball and more important, he's a team player."...was fourth on the Jets with 24 catches and third with 297 yards receiving...played in 13 games and started five...had only one dropped ball the entire season...scored TDs against San Francisco and Buffalo...caught at least one pass in 10 of the 13 games he played...tied a career high with five catches vs. Seattle (for 91 yards)...also had four receptions vs. New England (58 yards)...led the Jets' receivers in 1979 with 32 catches...finished second to Walker in 1978 with 38 receptions, which broke Walker's record for most catches (35) by a Jet rookie WR...his development during the 1978 training camp was one reason Jets were able to trade Rich Caster...earned game ball in win at Buffalo in 1978 when he had five catches for 108 yards and one TD...does not possess blazing speed but is very elusive after making catch.

COLLEGE: Played in the shadow of his close friend Wes Chandler, who was the third player chosen in the 1978 draft (New Orleans)...while a freshman at Florida, helped recruit Chandler in high school...was redshirted as a sophomore...broke into starting lineup midway through senior year when Chandler was moved to running back...tied NCAA record and broke Southeastern Conference mark with 99-yard reception vs. Rice...finished second to Chandler in receiving both as a junior (16, 279 yards, 17.4 avg., 0 TD) and as a senior (14, 319, 22.8, 2).

PERSONAL: Single...has degree in journalism...organized a guidance center for high school students with Wes Chandler in Jacksonville, Fla., during offseason...comes from a family of fine athletes...brother Johnny is a senior receiver at Florida...brothers Warren (1976-78) and Don (1973-75) also played for the Gators...brother Reginald played baseball at Florida A&M...three-sport standout at Raines High in his birthplace and hometown of Jacksonville, Fla...Raines also produced Houston's Ken Burrough and Philadelphia's Harold Carmichael, who both worked out with Gaffney while he was growing up and taught him how to run pass routes.

CLARK

Gaines

21

RB 6-1 212 2/1/54

Wake Forest

Free Agent, 1976 6th Season

PRO: "Clark was having a fine year until he got hurt (broken leg)," Michaels said. "It was a shame since he was off to such a good start. Clark had a lot of big plays for us catching the ball coming out of the backfield. Many of his receptions resulted in first downs to continue our offensive drives."...suffered a broken leg in second quarter against New England...was placed on injured reserve Oct. 7 and missed final 11 games...was still second leading receiver on the club with 36 catches (310 yards)...finished as fifth leading rusher with 174 yards on 36 carries...his 17 receptions vs. San Francisco was the second best in NFL history and tops in the AFC...Tom Fears holds the record of 18 catches set in 1950 for the Rams...caught 12 passes for 91 yards at Buffalo while also running for 94 yards on 14 carries...was selected Pentax Jets player of the week for his efforts...at the time of injury he was the NFL leader in receptions...had rushing average of 4.8 yards per attempt...was voted a game ball by teammates after victory in Atlanta the week after his injury...finished fourth among AFC rushing leaders in 1979 with a career-high 905 yards, the fifth best season in Jets' history...tied for AFC lead that season with an average of 4.9 yards per attempt...combined with Scott Dierking for more yards rushing (1,672) than any pair of running backs in Jet history, breaking the mark of 1,635 set by Dierking and Kevin Long in 1978...if the Jets gave a comeback player of the year award, Gaines probably would have been the unanimous choice in 1979...after losing his starting job in an injury-plagued 1978 season, regained his 1976-77 form when he was the first Jet ever to lead the club in rushing and receiving twice...showed his consistency by leading Jets in rushing in seven of the last eight contests...tied Greg Buttle for runnerup in Jets' MVP voting by teammates...ranks fifth among Jets' career rushing leaders with 2,552 yards...finished third in the NFL in receiving in 1977 with 55 catches, the second best ever by a Jet running back (Matt Snell had 56 in 1964) and the most by a Jet in nine years...was a Horatio Alger story in 1976 when he was the first rookie ever selected as Jets' MVP after signing as a free agent and barely making the team...led all NFL rookie runners with 724 yards despite not starting until the seventh game...set a Jets' season record with four 100-yard rushing games (119 at Buffalo, 109-Washington, 103-Tampa Bay, 102-Baltimore)...ran for 103 yards at New Orleans in 1977...made every NFL all-rookie team and was selected AFC Offensive Rookie of the Year by NFL Players Association...an intimidating blocker with great balance...his desire, intelligence and second-effort make up for lack of outstanding speed.

GAINES (continued)

COLLEGE: Might have been overlooked in draft because of injuries...gained 1,258 yards on 336 carries (3.7 avg.) in two years at Wake Forest...was All-Atlantic Coast Conference and captain as a senior...outstanding junior college runner at Lees-McRae (Banner Elk, N.C.)...rushed for 1,105 yards as a sophomore, second in the nation...named NJCAA All-America.

PERSONAL: Wife Kat...daughter Kia 5, son Cody born last Dec...has B.S. in physical education...serves as player representative...owns a home in Freeport, L.I....helped with Jets' Christmas party for children at Nassau County Medical Center...appeared on the Jerry Lewis Telethon for muscular dystrophy...also has worked with Special Olympics...did spotting and stats work with the NBC-TV crew during the broadcasts at Shea following his injury last fall...held two jobs in college while supporting his wife and daughter...was born and raised in Elberton, Ga., with six brothers and one sister...his father died of a lung disease from working in the granite quarries when Gaines was 16...was one of 13 blacks to volunteer to integrate Elbert County High.

MARK Gastineau 99

DE 6-5 276 11/20/56
 East Central (Okla.)
 Draft 2, 1979 3rd Season

PRO: "Mark showed improvement all the way in 1980," Michaels said. "He took over as the team's QB sack leader and improved his play against the run as the season progressed."... had 11½ sacks, the most by a Jet since 1970 when John Elliot recorded 16...the 11½ sacks represents the seventh best season by a defensive lineman in Jet history...was the team's sixth leading tackler with 54 solos and 38 assists...led club in QB pressures with 122...had at least one sack in nine of the 16 games he started...totaled five or more QB pressures in 12 of the 16 games...finished the season among the top five QB sackers in the AFC...named Pentax Jets player of the week vs. Houston when he registered three sacks and forced his opponent into five holding penalties...this resulted in Houston's loss of 69 yards...amassed an incredible total of 19 QB pressures in that game...also had two sacks at Denver and 1½ at Atlanta...named to Pro Football Weekly's 1980 most improved team...took over the starting job from Lawrence Pillers in preseason...only starting performance in rookie season was vs. Detroit, but played in all 16 games...was utilized primarily in passing situations in 1979...had two sacks and finished second to Joe Klecko with 49 QB pressures...the fastest Jet lineman...was clocked in 4.69 seconds in the 40 in 1980 when he weighed 283...gained strength during offseason by working out once again with former world-weightlifting champion John Cole...exhibited incredible strength during 1980 training camp by tearing the faceguard off a rookie offensive lineman's helmet with his bare hands during practice...credits a great deal of his improvement to working against all-pro Marvin Powell every day in drills.

COLLEGE: Gained attention of pro scouts with his performance in Senior bowl when he was selected the North's outstanding defensive lineman (Marty Lyons, Jets' No. 1 draft pick in 1979, earned same honor for the South)...was first player from East Central (Ada, Okla.) ever selected for Senior Bowl...also was first player ever drafted from his school (teammate Clifford Thrift was picked in third round and made the Chargers)...had 27 QB sacks in two years...originally played at Eastern Arizona JC in 1975 and Arizona State in 1976 before transferring...selected all-conference, NAIA All-District Nine and honorable mention NAIA All-America as a senior...earned two letters in track as shot put (conference champ and school record holder) and discus specialist.

PERSONAL: Wife Lisa...majored in Spanish...worked on land he owns in his hometown of Springerville, Ariz., during offseason...spent weekends collecting ancient Indian artifacts...father Ernie was a professional heavyweight boxer...helped out at the Christmas party for leukemia victims sponsored by No Greater Love and Eastern Paralyzed Veterans Associated...also helped with Jets' annual Christmas party for children at Nassau County Medical Center...three-sport standout at Round Valley High in Springerville...birthplace: Ardmore, Okla.

PRO CAREER STATS: QB sacks: 13½ (2-1979, 11½-1980). Games played/started: 1979 (16/1), 1980 (16/16).

It's an exciting feeling to tackle the quarterback. There aren't many guys in the league who want to hurt the quarterback but it is satisfying. It's fantastic. It must be the way Richard Todd feels when he throws a 60-yard TD pass or Wesley Walker when he catches it.

RB-KR 5-8 177 6/20/55
Kutztown (Pa.) State
Free Agent, 1977 5th Season

PRO: "Bruce did everything we called on him to do and had a great year," Michaels said. "He took on added responsibilities in the backfield due to injuries to others and he came through for us. Bruce is a competitive blocker for his size and a good receiver." ...chosen MVP by his teammates in 1980 and was selected as the first alternate for the Pro Bowl...selected all-NFL by N.Y. Daily News...topped the NFL and led the AFC in combined yardage (rushing, receiving, returns) for the fourth straight year with 2,072...became only the fifth NFL player to reach 2,000 yards twice in a career...the others are O.J. Simpson, Gale Sayers, Terry Metcalf and Timmy Brown...was Jets' leading receiver in 1980 with 50 receptions for 634 yards...the 634 yards were more than any RB in the NFL...was hospitalized for five weeks during April-May after a bout with pneumonia resulted in an inflammatory condition in the area of the heart and lungs...received a game ball vs. Houston when he took a screen pass from Todd and raced 45-yards for the go-ahead TD in the fourth quarter...his receptions of 17 and 9-yards in OT gave the Jets field position for Pat Leahy's winning FG...received Pentax Jets' player of the week award at New England when he accounted for 262 yards, just three less than his career high...set career highs in that game with 8 receptions for 96 yards, including one for TD...his other TD catch in the season came against San Francisco...had 7 receptions for 63 yards vs. 49ers...missed the first game of his career vs. Seattle...starting assignment at New England was only the third of his career...his only other two starts came in rookie year when he also saw action at wide receiver...was honored as the Bergen County (N.J.) Male Athlete of the Year by the YMCA this past winter...fumbled only twice in 1980...holds the NFL record with 55 kickoff returns set in 1978 and 1979...led league in kickoff return yardage in 1979 with 1,158...holds nine Jets' records...most kickoff return yardage in a game (204 in 1979), season (1,280 in 1978, third most in NFL history) and career (4,353)...most kickoff returns in a game (8, twice), season (55 in 1978 and 1979) and career (201)...most punt returns (125) and punt return yardage (1,335) in a career...most punt return yardage in a season (425 in 1977)...led NFL in combined yardage in 1978 (2,157) when he set NFL record for combined punt and kickoff return yardage (1,658), breaking Chuck Latourette's 1968 mark of 1,582...his 82-yard punt return for a TD vs. Buffalo was the third longest in Jets' history and tied for longest in NFL in 1978...led AFC in combined yardage with 1,867 as a free agent in 1977 when he was named pro rookie of the year by N.J. Sportswriters Association.

COLLEGE: Was recommended to Jets by Walt Michaels' son, Walter, Jr., who played with Harper at Kutztown (Pa.) State...honorable mention Little All-America in 1976 when he was first back in school's history to rush for over 1,000 yards (1,132)... three-year rushing total of 2,169 yards.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in social welfare...entered the real estate business in offseason...leads the Jets in tickets requested for home games, where he is supported by large cheering section of family and friends from his hometown and birthplace, Englewood, N.J., which gave him the key to the city last summer...football and track standout at Dwight Morrow High, where he was a friend of John Travolta.

I've accepted the fact that I'm a pro ball player. However, I don't feel my personality has changed. Other guys have had everything handed to them, but I had to crawl before I could run. I'm grateful for where I am. I've gone from a Volkswagen to a 280-Z and from living in my mom's house to my own house, but I haven't changed that much. I just remember my past and that keeps me working.

Florida State

Draft 6a, 1978 4th Season

PRO: "Bobby had an outstanding season and he is just coming into his own as one of the finer cornerbacks in the league," Michaels said. "He's a real competitor and a good tackler for his size"...led the team with 13 passes defended...had only one interception, mainly since opponents rarely threw to his side...finished ninth on the squad with 72 tackles (41 solos)...missed the first game of his career vs. Houston after injuring shoulder in fourth quarter at Denver...named Pentax Jets' player of the week vs. Buffalo after holding deep-threat Jerry Butler to just four short receptions...tied for the team lead with 16 passes defended in

...and was second with four interceptions...awarded game ball vs. Miami that year after he returned an interception 58-yards for a TD, the sixth longest in Jet history...was consensus NFL all-rookie when he tied for the club lead with five interceptions, which was the most by a Jet rookie since 1960 before Darrol Ray's six in 1980...tied with Johnny "Lam" Jones and Wesley Walker as the fastest player on the team in the 40, timed at 4.38...also has good jumping ability...Jets drafted him with the sixth round pick obtained from Buffalo for Billy Newsome in 1977 trade.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman...set Florida State career record with 10 interceptions...returned 30 punts for 10.5 average...honorable mention All-America as senior when team won Tangerine Bowl.

JOE

73

DE 6-3 265 10/15/53

Temple

Draft 6, 1977

5th Season

PRO: "Joe did a good job for us despite being bothered by injuries at times," Michaels said. "He should return to form and challenge for the team leadership in QB sacks and pressures."... was second on the team to Mark Gastineau in QB sacks with 10½ and pressures with 116...the 10½ sacks represents the eighth best season by a defensive lineman in Jet history...was the club's seventh leading tackler with 50 solos and 33 assists...missed his only game of the season against San Francisco with bruised ribs...had at least one sack in 8 of the 15 games he played...totaled five or more QB pressures in 13 games...after a slow start due to rib injuries suffered in training camp, he finished strong with six sacks in the last six games...had nine tackles, two QB sacks and 13 pressures in Jets' win at Miami...had two sacks and eight pressures against New England...registered 12 pressures in Jets' win at Miami...registered 12 pressures at Cleveland and 11 vs. Miami at Shea...credited with three passes defended...was selected most popular Jet by CYO of New York...had led Jets in QB sacks in previous three seasons...was shifted to DE in 1980 after playing DT in 1979...played RDE in 1978 when Jets used 4-3 alignment...selected second team All-AFC by UPI in 1978 and 1979...was alternate to Pro Bowl in 1979...had more than twice as many QB pressures as anybody on team in 1979 (100)...has had two blocked FGs (at Ball.-1977, at Cleve.-1978) and two blocked PATs (Miami, at N.E.), both in 1978...did not start until ninth game in 1977 but still had more QB sacks (eight) than any NFL rookie...had a career-high three QB sacks vs. Buffalo at Shea...put together streak of at least one sack in 10 consecutive games (last six of 1977 and first four of 1978)...personally drew five holding penalties against Bills' offensive line at Buffalo in 1978...matched rookie total of eight QB sacks that year...Jets drafted him in sixth round before Eagles, who had planned to pick him next.

COLLEGE: Played middle guard at Temple where he was both All-East and AP honorable mention All-America twice...was scouted by Walt Michaels when Owls almost upset Penn State in Klecko's junior year...was two-time ECAC club heavyweight boxing champion...lost only once in 35 amateur bouts.

PERSONAL: Wife Debbie...sons Michael 5, Daniel born in January...has appeared in two movies: "Smokey and the Bandit — II" and "The Cannonball Run"...is a good friend of Burt Reynolds...started forming his own trucking firm during the offseason...has also appeared on several television commercials...went on NFL-USO Dept. of Defense tour of military outposts in Far East in 1978 and got a chance to drive a tank...passed up college for two years to drive a truck (specializing in heavy, oversized loads) after graduating from St. James High in Chester, Pa., where he played football only as a senior...also drag raced his '55 chevy...played sandlot ball under assumed name Jim Jones for Aston (Pa.) Knights...was discovered by Temple's equipment man, Joe DiGregorio, who persuaded coach Wayne Hardin to offer Klecko a scholarship...used to work out at Joe Frazier's Cloverlay Gym in Philadelphia...once sparred with the ex-champ..."One of his punches that missed was enough to convince me not to become a professional boxer," Klecko said...birthplace and hometown: Chester, Pa.

PRO CAREER STATS: QB sacks: 33½ (8-1977, 8-1978, 7-1979, 10½-1980), Blocked PATs: 2 in 1978, Blocked FGs: 2 (1-1977, 1-1978), Blocked punts: 1 in 1979, Opp. fumbles recovered: 1 in 1978, Games played/started: 1977 (13/6), 1978 (16/16), 1979 (16/16), 1980 (15/15).

The Jets have Joe Klecko, who I think is the best defensive lineman in the league, and the other fellows they have certainly aren't weak links.

K 6-0 189 3/19/51
St. Louis
Free Agent, 1974 8th Season

PRO: Pat came on strong in the second half of the season," Michaels said. "We're expecting him to continue the upswing after coming back from his slow start."...finished with 36-36 PATs and 14-22 FGs...was the team's leading scorer for the fifth time in career with 78 points...after hitting on only four of nine FG attempts in the first seven games, he converted 10 of 13 in the remaining nine contests...kicked the winning 38-yard FG in overtime vs. Houston after missing a 36-yarder with six seconds left in regulation...was awarded game ball after 48-yard FG proved to be the margin of victory against Miami in the Jets 17-14 win...was successful on six of his eight attempts from the 40-49 yard region...set a career high for longest FG with a 49-yarder vs. San Francisco...barely missed on a 55-yard try at Cleveland...came back after missing the last 10 games in 1979 with a sprained knee...injured knee while running pass patterns in practice...finished the year with 12-15 PATs and 8-13 FGs...enjoyed the finest year of his career in 1978 when he led AFC in scoring 107 points, the fourth highest total in Jet history and the fourth successive season he'd paced team in scoring...was first Jet since Jim Turner to lead AFC in FGs (22)...had highest FG percentage (.733, 22-30) of his career and was 41-42 on PATs...was All-NFL (AP, Newark Star-Ledger), consensus All-AFC and barely missed making Pro Bowl...made 15 of first 17 FG attempts...ranks second to Turner in career FGs (89) and PATs (168) and third among Jet all-time leading scorers (435)...passed Emerson Boozer in 1980 and now trails only Turner and Don Maynard...his last minute FGs vs. Buffalo (1976) and New England (1977) gave Jets first wins...joined Jets in mid-1974 when Bobby Howfield was hurt...had tryout with Cardinals that year but couldn't unseat veteran Jim Bakken...Jets saw him during preseason game and kept him in mind.

COLLEGE: Four-year soccer letterman...no football experience...played on three NCAA championship teams in 1969, 1970, and 1972...voted outstanding defensive player in NCAA tourney as a freshman.

PERSONAL: Wife Colleen is a promising model...has degree in marketing and business administration...spent offseason in his birthplace and hometown of St. Louis remodeling his home...very active in charitable activities...organizes annual Jets' Christmas party for children at Nassau County Medical center and played Santa Claus last year...also helped put together the Christmas party sponsored by No Greater Love and Eastern Paralyzed Veterans Association for children stricken with leukemia...represented the Jets at the function for handicapped children at the Nassau Coliseum last fall...an excellent guitar player.

LANCE Mehl 56

LB 6-3 235 2/14/58
Penn State
Draft 3, 1980 2nd Season

PRO: When given the opportunity, Lance played well as a replacement for Greg Buttle at Miami," Michaels said. "He has good linebacking instincts and all indications show that he could compete for a starting job. Lance has good football intelligence and is always around the ball."...sat out the first two games of the season with a badly sprained ankle suffered in the second preseason game...came back to play in the remaining 14 games and started for the injured Buttle at Miami...played well in Jets' win at Miami with 12 tackles (9 solo)...saw spot duty in special passing situations late in the season...finished 14th on squad in tackles with 22 (13 solo)...performed well on special teams.

COLLEGE: "Mehl may be as good as any inside linebacker we've ever had at Penn State," said coach Joe Paterno...second team All-America (AP and UPI) as a senior...named first team All-East by AP and New York Times...defensive co-captain in 1979 when he led the Nittany Lions in tackles (99 total) for the second straight season...played in Hula Bowl...had two interceptions in 1979 and four in 1978...teammate of Mickey Shuler (lived in same dorm)...Buttle helped recruit him out of high school.

PERSONAL: Wife Linda...son Lance Jr. 1...has degree in industrial arts education...three-sport captain at Bellaire High in his birthplace and hometown of Bellaire, Ohio...was all-state in football and all-conference in baseball and basketball...was a substitute teacher during offseason...enjoys woodworking...worked underground in the coal mines for three summers in Ohio.

TOM Newton

RB 6-0 213 3/8/54

California

Free Agent, 1977 5th Season

PRO: "Newt filled in well when our fullbacks (Clark Gaines and Kevin Long) got hurt last year," Michaels said. "He's very good on short-yardage and goal-line plays, and he does the job on special teams. Tom's very team-orientated. You'll always hear him yelling and cheering his teammates on to do well, whether it be during a game or in drills during training camp."...played in all 16 games and started the last four after Long was injured...was the team's fourth leading rusher with 299 yards on 59 carries...had the most productive game of the season by a Jets' running back with 117 yards against New Orleans on 23 carries...was tied for sixth on the club in receptions with 20 for 144 yards...showed versatility at Cleveland with 6 receptions for 64 yards while gaining 55 yards on the ground on only nine attempts...finished third among the special team's tackling leaders in 1980...spent first two seasons on special teams before seeing time at fullback in 1979...finished fifth on team in rushing that year (37 carries, 145 yards)...had a 51-yard TD run at Buffalo, the second longest TD run in Jet history...has "that old knack of smelling the money at the end of the line," according to running back coach Bob Ledbetter...was special teams leader in 1978.

QB 6-2 203 11/19/53
Alabama
Draft 1, 1976 6th Season

PRO: "Statistics don't tell the true story of Richard's development last year," Michaels said. "He fought through tough situations with our receivers out with injuries, which as a result, effected his timing. Richard learned how to make adjustments last year and he is slowly taking over the leadership of the offense "...became the first QB in Jet history to take every snap from center in 1980...set a club record with 264 completions...passed for 3,329 yards, the third best in Jet history and most since Joe Namath's 4,007 in 1967...set career high with 17 TD passes, the most since Namath's 20 in 1974...completed a career high 55% of his passes...named Pentax Jets' player of the week vs. San Francisco when he set NFL record with 42 completions (60 attempts)...threw for 447 yards, the second best in Jet history to Namath's 496 in 1972 and tied for 10th best in the NFL...passed for over 200 yards in eight games...voted game ball vs. Houston with 13-26, 236-yard performance...did a good job getting the Jets into FG range in OT to set up win...was Jets' third leading rusher, and topped QBs in the AFC with 330 yards on 49 carries (6.7 avg.) and 5 TDs ...set career high with 53 yards on the ground vs. New Orleans...his 31-yard TD was the longest run by a Jet in 1980...longest completion of season was 55-yards to "Lam" Jones at Baltimore...with both healthy for the first time in 1980, he hit Jones and Wesley Walker with TD bombs at Denver...connected with Jones on a 39-yard TD at Cleveland and hooked-up with Walker on a 47-yard toss at Miami...had spectacular 16-yard TD scramble vs. Miami on Monday night game...finished third to Harper and Schroy in MVP voting by teammates...enjoyed first injury free campaign in 1979...was rusty in preseason after missing most of 1978 and lost starting job to Matt Robinson...took over No. 1 spot in second game of regular season and passed for 2,660 yards in remaining 15 games...led the NFL with average of 7.96 yards gained per pass attempt...brought the Jets from behind in six of eight victories...suffered broken left collarbone in fourth game of 1978 at Washington and missed next seven contests...was reinjured when he returned vs. Patriots and was placed on injured reserve...one of Michaels' first decisions as head coach in 1977 was to name Todd his No. 1 QB...progressed rapidly until he sprained right knee in eighth game vs. Miami...Jets were first in AFC passing at the time...missed next two games, returned in last quarter vs. Steelers and started final three...had best passing day in NFL in 1977 and seventh best in Jets' history when he threw for 396 yards (4 TDs) vs. defending Super Bowl champion Oakland...one TD covered 87 yards to Walker, tying the third longest pass ever for the Jets...started six games and was QB of record in two of Jets' three wins as a rookie when he competed against his boyhood idol Namath...ranks second behind Namath in several Jets' career passing categories: yards (9,571), TD passes (53), attempts (1,347), completions (693) and interceptions (91)...was sixth player chosen in first round of draft and first QB.

COLLEGE: Chosen Alabama's top QB of 1970's by Birmingham Post-Herald...named All-SEC by AP and UPI as a senior...honorable mention All-America...selected MVP by teammates...led Alabama to three straight SEC titles...MVP in 1975 Sugar Bowl...also played in Sugar Bowl as sophomore and Orange Bowl as a junior...completed 101 of 189, 1,642 yards, 16 TDs in career...rushed for 1,254 yards on 304 carries (4.1 avg.), 16 TDs...South MVP in Senior Bowl, passing for 332 yards and two TDs as dropback passer after running wishbone attack for Crimson Tide...picked for Chicago College All-Star Game but did not participate.

PERSONAL: Single...has degree in physical education...received pilots license during offseason...played Santa Claus at Christmas party sponsored by No Greater Love and Eastern Paralyzed Veterans Association for children stricken with leukemia...finished fifth among 12 in ABC's NFL Superstar competition in 1980...pressed 260 pounds to finish second behind Lee Roy Selmon in weightlifting...did public service message for United Way in 1978...biggest thrill in college was playing for Bear Bryant...enjoys scuba diving, hunting and fishing...owns beach house in Gulf Shores, Ala....mother Mary Ann is working on PhD and teaches nursing...father Carl has a doctorate and is associate dean of education at University of South Alabama...three-sport standout at Davidson High in his hometown of Mobile, Ala....birthplace: Birmingham, Ala.

STAN Waldemore 70

C-T-G 6-4 258 2/20/55
Nebraska
Free Agent, 1978 4th Season

PRO: "Stan is developing into a fine lineman," Michaels said. "His biggest asset is that he can play any position on the line. He did a good job filling in for Joe Fields and Randy Rasmussen last year."...played in 16 games and started eight, five at left guard and three at center...he (510 plays) and Fields were the only Jet linemen not called for a penalty in 1980...played in 16 games in 1979, mostly on special teams, and started one...originally signed with the Jets in Oct. 1978 and played in four of the remaining contests...drafted in third round by Atlanta that year...survived training camp but was cut two days before opening game...very strong...bench presses 450 pounds.

COLLEGE: Three-year letterman at Nebraska...played on Big Eight championship team as a soph...played in East-West Game and Senior Bowl...redshirted in 1974 when he switched from DT to OT.

PERSONAL: Single...has degree in construction management...worked out with Olympic weightlifters in his hometown of Belleville, N.J., during offseason...All-America at Essex Catholic High in his birthplace of Newark, N.J.

PRO CAREER STATS: Fumbles/Lost: 1/0 in 1980. Games played/started: 1978 (4/0), 1979 (16/1), 1980 (16/8).

WESLEY Walker

85

WR 6-0 177 5/26/55

California

Draft 2, 1977

5th Season

PRO: "Wesley was plagued by nagging injuries all season," Michaels said. "We're expecting him to return to his Pro Bowl year form. We're looking forward to having Wesley team up and form a passing combination with Richard Todd and "Lam" Jones...was hampered by injuries and missed playing time for the second straight season...played in 10 games and started seven...suffered a sprained neck in the preseason after he and Jones had established themselves as a dangerous pair of deep threats...after regaining his health in the fourth regular season game, suffered a severe thigh bruise and wound up missing six games after being placed on injured reserve (Oct. 11-brought back Nov. 15)...caught 36-yard TD pass in Denver on his first play back...47-yard reception at Miami set up TD...return to lineup enabled "Lam" Jones to enjoy single coverage...had three receptions against Houston and Los Angeles...continued to show why he is considered a "big play" producer with his fourth consecutive season of averaging over 20 yards per catch (20.9)...has established himself in just four seasons as one of pro football's most dangerous receivers with a 23.0-yard average on 124 catches (Homer Jones tops the all-time list for those with more than 200 catches with a 22.3 mark)...caught 18 passes for 376 yards in 1980...missed the last seven games of 1979 season with a sprained knee...still led the Jets in receiving yardage (569) for the third straight season...had best avg. per reception (24.7) among all NFL receivers with 10 or more catches...was almost even with his 1978 pace when he was a starter in the Pro Bowl, a consensus all-pro, Jets' MVP and NFL leader in receiving yards (1,169) and avg. gain per catch (24.4)...streak of 31 straight games with at least one catch was broken at New England in 1979...came back with six receptions for 177 yards next week vs. Detroit...grabbed a 71-yard TD bomb from Richard Todd with 2:10 to go to clinch victory over Dolphins at Shea...had two TDs vs. Oakland...had an amazing 52.0 avg. on eight TDs in 1978, including dramatic 75-yarder in fourth quarter at Denver that gave the Jets a 31-28 triumph...had 48 receptions in 1978, the most by a Jet wide receiver since 1968...named to every NFL all-rookie team in 1977 when he led league with 21.1 avg. per catch...had four receptions for a career-high 178 yards vs. Oakland, including 87-yard TD from Todd that tied third longest pass play in Jets' history...ranks seventh among Jet career leaders in receiving yardage (2,854)...has had seven games with 100 or more yards receiving...has a remarkable 44.9-yard avg. on 17 career TD catches...runs 40 in 4.38 second tying him for the best time on the club with "Lam" Jones and Bobby Jackson.

COLLEGE: Rated 10th best player in country at any position by Jets' scouts, who were very surprised that he was still available in second round...probably was not drafted high because he underwent knee surgery after the seventh game of his senior year...Jets' trainer Bob Reese examined him before draft and gave him clean bill of health...holds NCAA record for average gain per reception in a career (25.7)...in four years caught passes from Vince Ferragamo, Steve Bartkowski and the late Joe Roth...also returned kickoffs in first three seasons...had 86 receptions for school record 2,206 yards and tied Pac-8 record with 22 TD catches...set conference record with 289 yards receiving vs. San Jose State...his 88-yard TD reception vs. Georgia in 1976 was the longest in California history...ranked second to Chuck Muncie in career all-purpose yardage for Golden Bears...outstanding in track as sprinter and part of relay team...was Cal's first four-year double sport letterman since pre-World War II...was teammate of Jets' fullback Tom Newton.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in economics...lives in Dix Hills, L.I., year-round...was involved in NFL's Goals for Youth Tutorial Program during offseason...traveled to upstate New York three days per week to tutor children of migrant workers in reading and math...has done work for the March of Dimes...did public service message for United Way last year...helped at Christmas party sponsored by No Greater Love and Easter Paralyzed Veterans Association for children stricken with leukemia...is legally blind in left eye because of cataract he's had since birth..."It's really nothing," Walker says. "I've been playing sports with it all my life. I kept it pretty much a secret through high school and college. When I was 14 I was supposed to have surgery to remove the cataract, but the doctors decided it wouldn't have helped. I do have good peripheral vision. When I close my good eye I can still get around the house with my bad one open. It's just that I can't read the eye charts with it. When I was a kid I used to memorize the big letters."...father John Wesley served in Vietnam, and was stationed in Germany, Paris and all across United States...only once did Wesley go to the same school for three straight years, Carson (Calif.) High, where he was Los Angeles 100-yard and 220 champion and member of two L.A. championship football teams...played defensive back as well as wide receiver...was football player before becoming a track man...birthplace: San Bernardino, Calif.

Once Wes gets head up to you side by side, which is most of the time, he's going to run away from you and all you can do is hope the QB overthrows him. I don't think there's anyone in the league who can cover him one-on-one. Nobody.

— Jet cornerback Bobby Jackson

CHRIS Ward

72

T 6-3 270 12/16/55

Ohio State

Draft 1, 1978

4th Season

PRO: "Chris worked hard last year and continues to improve," Michaels said. "He has showed that he is capable of becoming a Pro Bowl performer. Run-blocking is his biggest asset and he is working to improve his overall techniques."...started 14 games at left tackle...missed the first games of his career, against New England and Buffalo, with a sprained ankle suffered on the Monday night contest...combines well with Mickey Shuler on the left side in short-yardage situations...is starting to become recognized as one of the finer tackles in the NFL...was rated as the fifth-best tackle in the league in 1980 by Pro Football Weekly...an overpowering, aggressive lineman...has quick feet and balance...was consensus NFL all-rookie in 1977...fourth player chosen in first round of draft...when Ward was picked, Michaels said, "I see Chris as a modern edition of Jim Parker (former Colt, now in Hall of Fame), and I wouldn't say that to many people. With Marvin Powell at right tackle, we've got two bookends for the next 10 years."

WARD (continued)

COLLEGE: "Chris has the finest work habits of any player I've coached at Ohio State," said Woody Hayes...consensus first team All-America in 1976 and 1977 and first team All-Big Ten for three straight seasons...named Offensive Lineman of the Year by Downtown Athletic Club during Heisman Trophy ceremonies...four-year letterman, three year starter...played 1,049 minutes in 44 games, more than any player in Ohio State history...played in Rose Bowl twice plus Orange, Sugar and Hula bowls...earned three varsity letters for Buckeye track squad as discus and shot put specialist.

PERSONAL: Was married (wife Karen, daughter of football great, Jim Brown) last April...majored in finance...lives year-round in Dix Hills, L.I....worked as a sales manager for a hardware firm during offseason...an honor student throughout college...nicknamed "Cubby"...helped at Jets' Christmas party for children at Nassau County Medical Center...has aided fundraising activities for Deborah Hospital in New Jersey...went to Patterson Cooperative High in his hometown of Dayton...set Ohio high school discus record...birthplace: Cleveland, Ohio.

RULES FOR FREE RE-ACTIVATIONS FROM INJURED RESERVE

Each club shall have during a season (including postseason) a maximum of three free re-activations from injured reserve which may be used only on players who were placed on reserve after the final cutdown of that year. In order for a club to use a free re-activation on any player injured in the preseason, such player must count on the active list at the final cutdown and be placed on injured reserve thereafter. Free re-activations may be used only on players who meet the four-week minimum requirements from the date of going on injured reserve during the regular season or from the date the injury occurred in preseason. The four-week minimum means that a player's injury renders him physically unable to play football for a minimum of four weeks.

ACTIVE LIST

The active list is the principal status for players participating for a club. It consists of all players under contract, including option, who are eligible for preseason, regular season and post-season games. Clubs are allowed to open training camp with an unlimited number of players but thereafter must meet a series of mandatory roster reductions prior to the season opener. The active list maximums and cutdown dates for 1981 are:

August 18.....	60 players
August 25.....	50 players
August 31.....	45 players

1980 JETS GAME-BY-GAME

(Attendance figures are turnstile counts)

Sept. 7, BALTIMORE 17, at JETS 14 (50,777) — Sunny and warm. Pat Leahy's 32-yard game tying field goal attempt hit the left upright and bounced back with only 3:17 remaining giving the Colts a season opening victory over the Jets. Baltimore's defense held the Jets' 1979 league leading rushing attack to only 39 yards, and intercepted four passes as New York's passing offense was slowed by injuries to Wesley Walker. In addition to holding the Jets to 48 total yards and only one first down in the first half, the Colts ran off more plays in those 30 minutes (45) than the Jets did in the entire game (42). A running into the kicker penalty gave the Colts life early in the second quarter and led to a Baltimore score, a Bert Jones 12-yard run. Mike Woods intercepted Richard Todd's first pass of the second half and the Colts scored seven plays later building a two TD lead. The Jets answered back on the next series as long passes to Bobby Jones and Johnny "Lam" Jones set up Todd's 3-yard TD bootleg. Minutes later, Darrol Ray electrified the home crowd by picking up a Joe Washington fumble and returning it 75-yards for the tying TD. It was the second longest fumble return in Jets' history. Baltimore, aided by a third down illegal contact penalty against the Jets, got a game winning 46-yard FG by Steve Mike-Mayer.

Sept. 14, at BUFFALO 20, JETS 10 (65,315) — Partly cloudy and mild. With the Jets battling back from a 13-3 deficit in the second half, Jeff Nixon delivered the crushing blow when he intercepted a Richard Todd pass and returned it 50-yards for a TD. The Jets moved 69-yards the first time they had the ball, 54 of those on the ground, before Pat Leahy gave New York its first lead of the season with a 44-yard FG. The Bills answered right back when Joe Cribbs completed a 73-yard drive with a one-yard TD. The big play in the scoring march came when Joe Ferguson's screen pass to Reuben Gant went for 48-yards, down to the 1-yard line. Nick Mike-Mayer's FGs of 47 and 38-yards increased the margin to 13-3 right before Nixon's interception. The Jets added their final tally with only three seconds remaining on a Todd to Clark Gaines 11-yard TD toss. Gaines provided the offensive production for the Jets with 12 catches for 91 yards and 14 rushes for 94.

Sept. 21, SAN FRANCISCO 37, at JETS 27 (50,608) — Hazy and warm. "It's no big deal. When you're down 21-0, you got to throw. I would rather they set the record, and we won," remarked Richard Todd after passing for 447 yards and setting an NFL record with 42 pass completions on 60 attempts in a losing cause. With both Greg Buttle and Joe Klecko sidelined with injuries, the 49ers scored the first four times they had the ball, opening up a 24-0 lead midway through the second quarter. By the time Pat Leahy got the Jets on the scoreboard with a 49-yard FG as the half came to an end, the 49ers had racked up 257 yards on offense. With the Jets trailing 30-6 entering the fourth quarter, Todd began his passing spree. While throwing 3 TD passes in the quarter, Todd's favorite receiver was Clark Gaines. Gaines caught 17 passes in the game, an AFC record and second in the NFL record book, for 160 yards. He was the leading receiver in the NFL at the end of the day. The Jets' injury list became so long in the second half, that safety Ken Schroy was left to play LB in the fourth quarter.

Sept. 28, at BALTIMORE 35, JETS 21 (33,373) — Sunny, clear, and warm. "We didn't make the big plays and Baltimore did," said Walt Michaels when the loss at Baltimore kept the Jets winless after four games. After the Colts jumped out to an early 7-0 lead, the Jets became involved in a controversial series of events. Richard Todd directed a drive to the Colts' 13-yard line where Pat Leahy converted a 30-yard FG. Baltimore's Fred Cook was guilty of jumping offsides, and while Michaels attempted to decline the penalty, the yards were marked off, and the FG was taken off the board. On the next play, Larry Braziel intercepted Todd's pass in the end zone and ran it back 60-yards. The Colts scored minutes later to go ahead 14-0. The Jets rallied behind big plays by Richard Todd and Lam Jones to tie the game at 14-14 and tried again to knot it at 28, but a series of mistakes nullified the effort. Baltimore added an insurance tally with 44 seconds remaining for the victory.

Oct. 5, NEW ENGLAND 21, at JETS 11 (53,603) — Cloudy and cool. The Jets found still another way to lose, this time a blocked field goal was returned for a TD, dropping the record to 0-5, the worst start in club history. New England led 7-6 as the Jets lined up to attempt a 49-yard FG with under two minutes left in the half. The kick was blocked by Steve Nelson, picked up by John Zamberlin, and then lateralled to Mike Haynes who ran 65-yards for a TD. Instead of a three point play and the lead for the Jets, it became seven for the Patriots and sent them on their way to the victory. The Patriots had struck for a TD the first time they had the ball going 75 yards in 14 plays, but the Jets quickly answered back as Richard Todd hit Clark Gaines with a 16-yard TD pass at the end of the first quarter. The PAT was missed when the snap was fumbled. Matt Cavanaugh replaced the hobbled Steve Grogan in the second half and added to the Patriots lead via a 37-yard TD pass to Harold Jackson. Trailing 21-6 in the fourth quarter, the Jets added a 40-yard FG by Pat Leahy and picked up two points when Cavanaugh took a deliberate safety. Following the safety a brawl broke out between the two teams and 30 players would receive fines later in the season for the altercation. Not only did the Jets lose the game, but they lost the services of Gaines for the season with a broken leg. Todd passed for 252 yards while completing 22 of 36 passes.

Oct. 12, JETS 14, at ATLANTA 7 (57,458) — Clear and mild. Kevin Long rushed for 100 yards, Richard Todd completed 8 of 19 for 104 yards and the defense came through with its best performance of the year as the Jets defeated the eventual NFC-West champion Falcons for their first win of the season. The Jets' running attack excelled all day accounting for 190 yards. On the Jets' opening series, Todd directed the Jets on a 12-play drive, and only one of those a passing play. Scott Dierking, who had led the blocking for Long all game, put the Jets on top with his plunge from the 1-yard line. With the Jets holding onto a slim 7-0 lead, the defense came through with big plays. Mark Gastineau and Joe Klecko each had 1½ QB sacks, and Ken Schroy intercepted 2 passes. One of Schroy's thefts came off a Steve Bartkowski pass, the other from kicker John James who attempted a pass from punt formation. Atlanta put together its only long drive early in the fourth quarter and tied the score on Lynn Cain's 1-yard TD run. The Jets took possession of the ball with only 6 minutes remaining in the game and the ball on the 50. Todd's 19-yard pass to Bobby Jones got New York in scoring range, and 8 plays later Long's TD run on third down gave the Jets the lead with only 1:38 left. Bartkowski attempted to send the game into overtime. His 45-yard toss, intended for Wallace Francis in the end zone, was picked off by Darrol Ray with only 20 seconds on the clock. Game balls were awarded to Ray, Schroy and Long.

Oct. 19, SEATTLE 27, at JETS 17 (52,496) — Sunny and mild. Once again it was a key mistake, this time a blocked punt returned for a TD, that cost the Jets another game. The Jets were dominating the game with a 14-3 lead late in the third quarter when the blocked punt changed the momentum, and Seattle went on to outscore New York 24-3 in the final 20 minutes. The Jets overcame Seattle's early 3-0 lead just before halftime when Richard Todd found Mickey Shuler in the end zone from 4-yards out, giving New York a 7-3 lead. Shuler caught 3 passes for 33 yards in the 15 play, 80-yard drive that consumed over 7 minutes. Todd's 20-yard TD pass to Scott Dierking, who caught a game high 6 passes for 60 yards, gave the Jets a 14-3 cushion in the third quarter. With Chuck Ramsey attempting to punt late in the quarter, Sam McCullum raced in untouched to block the kick. Jessie Green picked up the loose ball and ran 32-yards for the TD. After the teams exchanged FGs early in the fourth quarter, Jeff Moore set up the Seahawks go-ahead TD under strange circumstances. Following Moore's broken field 34-yard run and Zorn's 23-yard pass to Steve Largent, Seattle had the ball on the Jets' 20. Mark Gastineau jumped offsides, the players stopped when a whistle was heard, and Moore ran 18-yards to the 2-yard line. Jim Jodat scored on the next play to give Seattle a 20-17 lead. Todd, who completed 17 of 27 for 198 yards, was intercepted when Keith Simpson stepped in front of his pass intended for Shuler two plays later. Jodat scored his second TD of the game 4 plays later to clinch Seattle's victory.

Oct. 27, at JETS 17, MIAMI 14 (53,046) — Very cloudy and cool. Ball control and a strong defensive effort for 59 minutes gave the Jets their second victory of the season, and their second straight on a Monday night TV game in New York. The Jets' offense dominated the Dolphins and the clock throughout the game as Richard Todd led New York on TD marches of 99 yards (17 plays and 9:22) and 74 yards (14 plays and 5:59). Pat Leahy's fourth quarter 48-yard FG ended up being the margin of victory as Miami broke onto the scoreboard with two TDs in the last minute of play. The Jets rushed for 159 yards and mixed in 175 yards passing from Todd, while the defense held the potent Miami running attack to only 71 yards. Rookie QB David Woodley, who completed 22 of 42 for 224 yards, wasn't successful until the last minute of the game. The Dolphins scored at 1:00 and followed a recovered on-side kick with another TD 49 seconds later. The game ended when Ken Schroy recovered another on-side kick attempt by Miami.

Nov. 3, at NEW ENGLAND 34, JETS 21 (60,834) — Clear and cool. "I had to earn my pay; it was something that had to be done," said Bruce Harper, who was forced to play the entire game instead of his usual spot situation duty because of injuries to the Jets' RBs. Harper amassed 262 combined yards as the Jets bowed in New England. It appeared as if this would be another rout in Foxboro as the Patriots scored twice in the first six minutes, including Roland James' 75-yard punt return. The Patriots opened up a 24-0 lead at the start of the second quarter, but the Jets refused to quit. Richard Todd, who completed 19 of 35 for 261 yards, got the Jets back in the picture with TD passes to Jerome Barkum and Harper. Harper and Barkum were leading receivers in the game with eight catches for 96 yards and five catches for 94 yards, respectively. New England scored before the half for a comfortable 31-14 lead. The Jets closed to within 34-21 at the start of the fourth quarter, but interceptions by James and Tim Fox killed two New York drives. Once again the injury list haunted the Jets, as Randy Rasmussen was lost for the season with a sprained knee, the first serious injury of his 14 year career.

Nov. 9, BUFFALO 31, at JETS 24 (45,677) — Overcast and rain. "It was an inside post and I broke it outside and picked up a step on him because of the wet footing," remarked Frank Lewis after beating Donald Dykes to haul in Joe Ferguson's 31-yard winning TD pass with six seconds left in the game. The Bills opened up a quick 17-0 lead as the Jets fumbled away the ball deep in their own territory on their first two possessions. The Jets fought to close the gap before halftime behind Richard Todd's TD run from a yard out and Pat Leahy's 33-yard FG in a steady rain. Joe Ferguson, who completed 16 of 28 passes for 140 yards, led the Bills downfield towards a two TD lead that was completed when Roosevelt Leaks scored from the one. Despite the poor weather conditions, Todd completed passes to Bruce Harper for 27 yards and Johnny "Lam" Jones for 24 yards, setting up his 9-yard scoring toss to Derrick Gaffney. Another 24-yard completion to Jones set up Scott Dierking's tying TD run from 2-yards out with five minutes left. After the Jets' defense held, New York regained possession with 54 seconds left. Unable to move the ball, the Jets punted to the Bills with 19 seconds on the clock. Two plays and 13 seconds later, Ferguson completed the pass to Lewis. Todd was 18 of 28 for 212 yards.

Nov. 16, at DENVER 31, JETS 24 (72,114) — Partly cloudy and cold. For 28 minutes the Jets put it all together — big scoring plays, three QB sacks and a 17-3 lead, but the Broncos, led by Craig Morton, came back to defeat the Jets. New York displayed its hoped-for-1980 offense with Richard Todd hitting Wesley Walker and Johnny "Lam" Jones for their first TD catches for the season. Morton was the story for Denver as he passed for 306 yards and led the Broncos to TD drives of 88, 70, 70 and the winning 58-yard march. After the Jets took their 17-3 lead, Morton brought the Broncos back in the final two minutes of the first half with an 88-yard drive that benefited from two tipped ball catches and a roughing the QB penalty. He tied it in the third quarter and moved to a 24-17 lead early in the fourth. The Jets bounced right back as a pass interference call against Denver and a 26-yard reception by Walker was followed by Scott Dierking's TD run from the one. Morton went to work again, this time leading Denver 58-yards

Nov. 23, at JETS 31, HOUSTON 28 overtime (52,358) — Cloudy and cool. After missing a 36-yard attempt with only six seconds left in regulation time, Pat Leahy connected on a 38-yarder just 3:58 into overtime to give the Jets an upset win over Houston. It was Bruce Harper's heroics that enabled the Jets to achieve the win. In addition to his 45-yard TD run after taking a screen pass from Richard Todd in the fourth quarter, Harper also set up Leahy's game-winning FG with screen pass receptions of 9 and 17-yards. New York jumped to its early lead when Ken Schroy returned a Ken Stabler interception 82-yards for a TD. It was the second longest interception return in the Jets' history. The Jets made it 14-0 when they turned a fumbled punt return into a score. Midway through the second quarter Ron Crosby picked off a Stabler pass and ran it to the one-yard line, setting up Kevin Long's TD plunge. Stabler, who set personal highs with 33 completions of 51 attempts for 388 yards, brought the Oilers back in the fourth quarter with two TD passes to ex-Jet Rich Caster and one each to Mike Barber and Billy Johnson. The Jets' defense managed to come up with the big play all afternoon. In addition to Darrol Ray's two interceptions, Mark Gastineau was responsible for the Oilers' loss of 69-yards as a result of three QB sacks and five holding penalties. Gastineau led the defensive line with an incredible 19 QB pressures. While the Jets were able to hold Earl Campbell to only 60-yards rushing, Barber led all receivers with 10 catches for 97 yards, Todd was 13-26-236-1-2. Game balls were voted to Walt Michaels, Todd and Schroy.

Nov. 30, at LOS ANGELES 38, JETS 13 (59,743) — Hazy sunshine and warm, "You can't start the game with a fumble and start the first series of the second half with a fumble and expect to win," commented Walt Michaels after the Rams defeated the Jets. Despite throwing four interceptions in the game to four different Jets, Ferragamo also threw four TD passes while completing 22 of 36 for 284 yards as the Rams had their most productive day of the season with 510 yards of total offense. For three quarters New York stayed within striking range, trailing 24-13, but Los Angeles' third period ball control and rugged defense finally took its toll as Richard Todd was sacked six times. Elvis Peacock became the first opposing runner to break the century mark against the Jets since Tony Dorsett in 1978, picking up 152 yards on 19 carries. In addition to their six QB sacks, the Rams' defense limited the Jets' injury-plagued running game to 85 yards.

Dec. 7, at CLEVELAND 17, JETS 14 (78,454) — Over cast and cool. Brian Sipe threw a Cleveland club record 30 completions in 41 attempts for 340 yards as the AFC Central Champion Browns staged another fourth quarter come-from-behind victory over the Jets. The Jets' defense played well enough to keep the Browns to a slim 3-0 lead at halftime, holding Cleveland to only 31-yards rushing. Sipe came out throwing in the third quarter, and his completions of 17-yards to Reggie Rucker and 24-yards to Dave Logan set up the first TD of the game. With the Browns leading 10-0, the Jets bounced back on the next series when Richard Todd's short pass to Johnny "Lam" Jones turned into a spectacular 39-yard TD. A 5-yard TD toss to Mickey Shuler put the Jets in front for the first time in the game. Sipe and the Kardiak Kids lived up their nickname as Greg Pruitt hauled in a 5-yard TD pass midway through the fourth quarter. With over five minutes remaining in the game, Sipe led the Browns to four first downs which enabled them to run out the clock for a 17-14 win.

Dec. 14, NEW ORLEANS 21, at JETS 20 (38,007) — Cloudy, cold, and occasional snow. Tony Galbreath's game-winning TD run capped off a 73-yard, 10 play drive in a steady snow storm as the Jets found themselves the victims of the Saints, who gained their first victory of the season after 14 losses. New Orleans posted a 7-0 lead, but the Jets came back with Kevin Long's TD run and Pat Leahy FGs of 26 and 47-yard for a 13-7 lead. After Galbreath's first TD gave the Saints a 14-13 lead, Todd scrambled 31 yards, the longest run by a Jet all season, for a 20-14 Jets lead. Following Galbreath's go-ahead TD, the Jets moved up and down the field but were found wanting in scoring position missing a FG and fumbling the ball on a fourth and one situation at the Saints' 16. Time ran out on the Jets as Bruce Harper was tackled on the Saints 37-yard line after running 23 yards.

Dec. 20, JETS 24, at MIAMI 17 (41,854) — Cloudy and warm. In a game that will be remembered as NBC's nationally televised experiment without announcers, the Jets silenced the Dolphins for the sixth straight time. Following Miami's early 3-0 lead, Richard Todd's 46-yard bomb to Wesley Walker preceded the Jets' first TD. The teams exchanged TDs before the half ended, the Jets' coming with only three seconds remaining before intermission. Darrol Ray picked off David Woodley's third pass of the second half and ran 79-yards down the right sideline for a TD. It was the third longest interception return in Jets history, and Ray's sixth of the season. Woodley's TD run in the fourth drew the Dolphins to within four, before Leahy's 34-yard FG increased the margin to seven. The game ended with Woodley attempting to tie the score with three long incompletions into Miami's end zone. Todd hit on 12 of 19 for 172 yards, while Joe Klecko led the defensive line with two QB sacks. Game balls were awarded to Walt Michaels and defensive coordinator John Mazur, who had announced his retirement for health reasons.

ALL-PRO—Joe Namath voted the all-pro (NFL-AFL) quarterback by league coaches for the second year in a row. Joining him on all-pro squads were Winston Hill and Matt Snell (Dec. 22).

ALL-TIME AFL TEAM—Weeb Ewbank named the all-time coach of the AFL and Joe Namath, Don Maynard and Gerry Philbin chosen to the all-time AFL team selected by the Hall of Fame.

PLAYERS STRIKE—NFL Players Association strikes pro football camps, leaving the Jets with only rookies as full training camp was supposed to open (July 19).

STRIKE SETTLED—Veterans report to camp after missing three weeks due to the strike (Aug. 3).

OPENER—Jets open up the 1970 season against new AFC rival, Cleveland, losing 31-21 in Monday night TV inaugural (Sept. 21).

BLACKOUT LIFTED—The Jets agreed to lift the TV blackout of the New York area for the Jets-Giants game (October).

NAMATH EXITS—In the first meeting between the Colts and Jets since 1969 Super Bowl, Joe Namath fractured his right wrist and was sidelined for the year (Oct. 18).

NEW YORK RIVALS—The Jets and Giants met in the first regular season game between the two intracity squads. The Giants came back in the second half for a 22-10 win before a Shea Stadium record crowd of 63,903 (Nov. 1).

UPSETS—Behind Al Woodall's quarterbacking and the top AFC defense, the Jets upset the powerful Rams and Vikings within a three-week span, toppling two of the NFC's leading contenders (Nov. 15, Nov. 29).

SAUER RETIRES—The Jets' all-pro wide receiver, George Sauer, a five-year veteran, announced his retirement (April 16).

BIGGS DEPARTS—Weeb Ewbank had a player exercise his option for the first time ever as Verlon Biggs, DE, signed with Washington. The Redskins sent two draft choices as compensation (June 10).

NAMATH HURT—For the second time in as many seasons, Joe Namath was forced out of the lineup. This time he was hurt in first preseason game trying to make a tackle on a fumble runback and underwent surgery on his left knee immediately (Aug. 7).

OPENER—Al Woodall opens the season in place of injured Joe Namath, but the Jets suffer their first shutout since 1963 at the hands of Baltimore 20-0 (Sept. 19).

NAMATH RETURNS—Joe Namath, on the sidelines for 19 straight games, made his return in the second quarter against San Francisco and tossed for 358 yards and three TD passes as the Jets barely fell to the 49ers, 24-21 (Nov. 28).

ATTENDANCE RECORD — Jets close out with a win over Cincinnati setting a season home attendance mark of 441,099 (Dec. 19).

NAMATH SPARKLES—Joe Namath had his finest day as a pro, throwing for 496 yards and six touchdowns as the Jets defeated Baltimore 44-34. Namath and John Unitas set an NFL combined record for passing yardage—872 (Sept. 24).

RUSHING MARK—Jets set club rushing record of 333 yards as team defeated Patriots 41-13. John Riggins* (168 yards) and Emerson Boozer (150) became first tandem in history to hit the 150-yard mark in a game (Oct. 15).

MAYNARD MARK—Don Maynard became pro football's all-time receiving leader with his 632nd career catch. The historic grab came in the fourth quarter at Oakland. Namath passed for 403 yards, but Jets were eliminated from race (Dec. 11).

1973

WINNER HIRED—Charley Winner, former head coach of St. Louis, is named to succeed Weeb Ewbank as head coach of the Jets, starting with the 1974 season. Winner serves as an assistant coach under Ewbank for 1973 (Feb. 1).

JETS EVICTED FROM HOME—Due to World Series games, the Jets were forced to play their first six games on the road, including moving the Pittsburgh game to Three Rivers Stadium. This left the Jets with only six games for the home fans (Oct. 21).

EWBANK-O.J.—Weeb Ewbank's last game after 11 years as Jets' head coach, but Buffalo's O.J. Simpson provided the fireworks as the Jets finished out at 4-10. Simpson broke the NFL season rushing mark with a 200-yard afternoon and wound up with 2003 for the year (Dec. 16).

PLAYER STRIKE—Jets open training camp with 31 rookies and one veteran as the NFLPA strike begins (July 9).

FREE AGENT SIGNINGS—Jets hold open tryout day and sign 19 free agents to add depth to the training camp squad (July 10).

PRESEASON OPENS—Playing with a team composed mainly of rookies, the Jets defeated Denver 41-19 in the opening preseason game. John Jones was at QB (Aug. 3).

TRAINING CENTER—Jets took occupancy of their new training center in Hempstead, N.Y. The center contains coaches' offices, players' quarters and full practice facilities (Sept. 3).

NEW HAVEN VICTORY—After going 1-7 over the first part of the year, the Jets snapped their slump with a tingling 26-20 overtime victory over the Giants at Yale Bowl. Joe Namath threw six yards to Emerson Boozer for the winning points (Nov. 10).

EWBANK RESIGNS AS VP—Weeb Ewbank announces that he will retire as vice president of the Jets at the end of the season (Nov. 12).

VICTORY BINGE—Jets close out the season with six consecutive victories to provide a 7-7 season. Included in the streak were upsets over playoff-bound Miami and Buffalo.

DRAFT—Jets traded their number one pick for DE Billy Newsome of New Orleans (Jan. 28).

GENERAL MANAGER NAMED—Al Ward, vice president of the Dallas Cowboys, was named Jets' general manager to succeed Weeb Ewbank who had retired (Feb. 13).

NAMATH SIGNS—Joe Namath turned down a reported multi-million dollar WFL contract to sign a two-year contract with Jets (July 30).

GAME STRUCK—The final preseason game between the Jets and New England Patriots was canceled when the Patriots' players went on strike (Sept. 14).

JETS STRIKE—The New York Jets' players voted to support the New England players' strike and walked out of camp the week of the opener against Buffalo (Sept. 16).

PLAYERS RETURN—Jets' players returned to camp as strike was settled (Sept. 18).

EMPEROR HIROHITO—His Majesty, Emperor Hirohito of Japan, attends home opener and watches Jets defeat Patriots 36-7 (Oct. 5).

WINNER FIRED—Charley Winner was dismissed as head coach after the Jets lost six games in a row and were in the AFC East cellar with a 2-7 record. Ken Shipp, the offensive coordinator, was named interim head coach (Nov. 19).

RIGGINS 1,000 YARDS—John Riggins became the first Jet in history to gain 1,000 yards as he reached 1,005 vs. Dallas in season finale (Dec. 21).

1976

HOLTZ NAMED COACH—Lou Holtz, who had a successful four years at North Carolina State, was named head coach. He signed a five-year contract (Feb. 10).

DRAFT—Jets tab another Alabama quarterback as their number one pick, selecting Richard Todd (April 8).

ISELIN CARDIAC ARREST—Jets' president Phil Iselin suffered a cardiac arrest while attending Jets game at Denver (Sept. 19).

HOLTZ RESIGNS—Lou Holtz, deciding that he wasn't right for the pros, resigns with one game to go and returns to college coaching job. Mike Holovak was named interim coach for final game (Dec. 9).

NAMATH LAST GAME—Joe Namath started what was to be his final game as a Jet against Cincinnati (Dec. 12).

ISELIN DIES—Phil Iselin, who led the Jets for eight years, suffered a fatal heart attack while at his office (Dec. 28).

1977

MICHAELS HEAD COACH—Veteran defensive coach Walt Michaels was named head coach, signing a three-year contract. Leon Hess was named acting president. (Jan. 5)

PLAYER AGREEMENT—The NFL and the NFL Players Association agreed on a contract for the first time in three years. The contract extends five years and contains a modified draft. (March 1).

NAMATH WAIVED—Joe Namath, symbol of the Jets for 12 years, was granted his freedom as he was placed on waivers when a special trade attempt with Los Angeles was unsuccessful (April 1, became final April 12). Namath signed as free agent with Rams on May 12.

DRAFT—Marvin Powell, offensive tackle from Southern California, was Jets' first pick (May 3).

JETS WIN EARLY ACCESS TO SHEA—After a two-month court struggle, the Jets were guaranteed two September games in Shea Stadium, one on either the first or second date of the NFL season, plus two games in October. The agreement was for each of the remaining six years of the Jets' lease with the city, beginning in 1978. State Supreme Court Justice Harold Baer also allowed the Jets to play two preseason games plus their 1977 home opener at Giants Stadium in the Meadowlands (May 26).

KENSIL NAMED PRESIDENT—Jim Kensil, executive director of the NFL since 1968, was named president and chief operating officer of the Jets. Leon Hess, who had served as acting president, became chairman of the board and chief executive officer for corporate matters (June 6).

TODD HAS BEST PASSING DAY IN NFL—Second-year quarterback Richard Todd came through with the best passing performance in the NFL in 1977, throwing for 396 yards and four TDs in a 28-27 loss to the defending Super Bowl champion Oakland Raiders at Shea (Oct. 23).

WARD RESIGNS—Al Ward, Jets' general manager since 1975, resigned (Dec. 30). He became assistant to the president of the AFC (April, 1978).

EWBANK NAMED TO HALL OF FAME—Weeb Ewbank, who guided the Jets from 1963-73 and was the only coach to win world championships in both the NFL and AFL, was selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Joining Ewbank were Larry Wilson, Ray Nitschke, Tuffy Leemans and Lance Alworth, the first player from the AFL to be enshrined (Jan. 23).

NAMATH RETIRES—Joe Namath announced his retirement from pro football (Jan. 25).

JETS CHANGE LOGO AND UNIFORM—For the first time since 1963, the Jets changed their uniform design. The team also adopted a new logo and changed the helmet to green (Feb. 27).

DRAFT—For the second straight year, the Jets picked an offensive tackle in the first round—Chris Ward of Ohio State (May 2).

MICHAELS' CONTRACT EXTENDED—Coach Walt Michaels' pact was extended during the week before the Jets' opener (Sept. 1).

JETS WIN FIRST DEBUT SINCE 1972—Opening the season at home for the first time since 1964, the Jets upset Miami, 33-20, behind Richard Todd's three TD passes. It was the first Jets' opening-day win in seven years (Sept. 3).

JETS OVERCOME BRONCOS IN DENVER—In one of the most dramatic comebacks in the history of the franchise, the Jets fought back from a 28-7 deficit in the first half to defeat the defending AFC champion Broncos, 31-28, before 74,983 fans at Mile High Stadium. Matt Robinson's 75-yard TD pass to Wesley Walker provided the winning margin in the last quarter (Nov. 5).

WALKER SELECTED TO PRO BOWL—Wide receiver Wesley Walker became the first Jet since 1975 to be chosen for the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl (Dec. 14).

JETS FINISH WITH MOST WINS SINCE 1969—The Jets closed with an 8-8 record, the most wins by the club in 10 years and the best record since 1974 (Dec. 17).

MICHAELS PICKED COACH OF THE YEAR—Walt Michaels, who kept the youngest team in the NFL in playoff contention for 15 games, was named AFC Coach of the Year by UPI and the Pro Football Writers of America. He was chosen NFL Coach of the Year by several publications.

JETS SIGN WITH WCBS—The Jets and WCBS Newsradio 88 agreed to a five-year contract. WCBS replaced WOR, which had broadcast Jets' games for the previous eight seasons (Jan. 2).

DRAFT—Marty Lyons, All-America defensive lineman from Alabama, was Jets' first round pick (May 3).

FIRST MONDAY NIGHT TV GAME FROM NEW YORK AREA—The Jets defeated the Vikings, 14-7, at Shea in the first Monday night television game to originate from the New York City area (Oct. 15).

MARVIN POWELL SELECTED TO PRO BOWL—Tackle Marvin Powell became the first Jet offensive lineman to be chosen for the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl since Winston Hill in 1973 (Dec. 13).

JETS CLOSE WITH THREE STRAIGHT WINS—The Jets defeated AFC East rivals Baltimore, New England and Miami in the final three games of the year to finish 8-8.

MATT ROBINSON TRADED TO DENVER—Backup quarterback Matt Robinson was traded to Denver for the Broncos' first and second round picks in the 1980 draft plus quarterback Craig Penrose (Feb. 1).

DRAFT—Jets made bold trade to move up to second spot in first round and picked Johnny "Lam" Jones, All-America wide receiver from Texas. New York swapped its two first round choices (13th and 20th) to the 49ers for their first round position (April 29).

TODD SETS NFL RECORD—Richard Todd's 42 pass completions set an NFL record (60 attempts for 447 yards and 3 TDs) as the Jets dropped a 37-27 decision to San Francisco at Shea. In that game Clark Gaines set an AFC record (2nd in the NFL books) with 17 pass receptions (Sept. 21).

POWELL CHOSEN AS PRO BOWL STARTER—Marvin Powell was chosen for the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl for the second straight year, this time as a starter (Dec. 15).

OWNERSHIP SHARES CHANGE—Townsend B. Martin sold his 25% interest in the team to Leon Hess. Hess assumed 75% ownership in the club, while Helen Dillon remained at 25% (Mar. 2).

DRAFT—Freeman McNeil, UCLA's all-time leading running back, is chosen by the Jets in the first round. (April 28).

AFL CHAMPIONSHIP

DEC. 29, 1968 — SHEA STADIUM

NEW YORK 27, OAKLAND 23

The New York Jets climaxed their finest season in history (11-3) by scoring a 27-23 victory over Oakland in the ninth annual American Football League championship game. A title game record crowd of 62,627 sat in on the chilly and windy proceedings at Shea Stadium and saw Joe Namath toss three touchdown passes (two to Don Maynard, one to Pete Lammons). In addition, Jim Turner, the league's leading scorer, booted two field goals.

Despite the fact that Namath attempted a record 49 passes, the Jets still mixed their attack. Matt Snell and Emerson Boozer gained 71 and 51 yards, respectively, behind fine blocking from the front line.

Oakland, bidding for its second straight crown, was led by the passing arm of Daryle Lamonica, who threw for 401 yards. Its running attack was blunted by the Jets' league-leading defense which held Hewitt Dixon & Co. to 44 yards. The Raiders carried the game down to the final minutes before Lamonica's lateral pass for Charlie Smith rolled free and was recovered by the Jets' Ralph Baker.

The victory gave head coach Weeb Ewbank the honor of being the only coach to win titles in both the NFL and AFL.

SUPER BOWL III

JAN. 12, 1969 — MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

NEW YORK 16, BALTIMORE 7

Defying the oddsmakers (17½ point underdogs) and the strength of traditions, the Jets became the first AFL team to win the Super Bowl by rumbling over and through the Baltimore Colts to record a 16-7 triumph. A crowd of 75,377 witnessed the spectacle in Miami's Orange Bowl.

As it was in the AFL championship contest, Joe Namath led the way. The all-pro quarterback directed the Jets' attack flawlessly, driving the team to a second quarter touchdown by Matt Snell (four yards) and three second-half field goals by Jim Turner. Snell had an outstanding game, gaining 121 yards on 30 carries. The blocking and pass protection by the Jets' line was superb.

The defense shared at least as much glory as the offensive unit, intercepting the Colts four times. Randy Beverly picked off two; Jim Hudson and Johnny Sample, one each. The defensive unit harrassed Colts' quarterbacks Earl Morrall and Johnny Unitas all afternoon, allowing them to complete only 17 of 41 passes. The one touchdown represented the lowest output by the powerful Colts in 35 games. The victory was the third in World Championship competition in as many tries for Weeb Ewbank and made him the only man ever to coach world champions in both the AFL and NFL.

AFL PLAYOFF

DEC. 20, 1969 — SHEA STADIUM

KANSAS CITY 13, NEW YORK 6

For the second year in a row, the Jets entered the American Football League playoffs as champions of the Eastern Division. Under the playoff scheme devised for 1969, the Big Green had to meet the second-place team in the Western Division in order to advance to the championship game. Thus the Jets entertained Kansas City at Shea Stadium in the first step toward another Super Bowl.

The game was a classic battle of defenses, played in remarkably cold and windy conditions before a sellout 62,977 fans. Through the first three quarters, neither team could penetrate for a touchdown and the score stood at 6-3 for the Chiefs. Jim Turner had put New York out in front, 3-0, with a 28-yard field goal the first time the Jets had the ball, but the Chiefs' Jan Stenerud retaliated with a 23-yarder on the next series.

Not until the fourth quarter did the breaks occur. With first and goal on the one-yard line, three cracks, including a Joe Namath bootleg, failed to bring a touchdown. Turner then kicked a 7-yard field goal to tie it, 6-6.

Two plays later Kansas City was in the end zone. Len Dawson hit Otis Taylor for a 61-yard pass play to take the Chiefs to the Jet 19. Then Dawson fired the final 19 yards to Gloster Richardson for the only touchdown of the game.

Namath threw 20 passes over the next two Jets' series, but a fourth down incomplection and a Jim Marsalis interception thwarted the Jets and put Kansas City on the road to the world championship.

WEEB EWANK — A HALL OF FAMER

Weeb Ewbank, who guided the Jets for more than a decade, was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29, 1978.

The former Jets' and Colts' (1954-62) head coach achieved a distinction that will never be matched — the only coach to win world championships in both leagues.

The Colts were dismal losers when Weeb took over in 1954. He built them up to the NFL champions in 1958 when they beat the Giants in a memorable sudden death overtime and they won the title again in 1959. Weeb joined the Jets in 1963 and developed them to the team that shocked the Colts in Super Bowl III.

Weeb joined impressive company. Paul Brown, George Halas and Vince Lombardi are the only coaches in the Hall of Fame who were contemporaries of Weeb during his head coaching career.
